

MEDIA ADVISORY

Abbotsford, April 26, 2018 – City of Abbotsford staff and guests will be participating in the National Day of Mourning. This gathering is in memory of the 158 workers in BC who lost their lives to workplace injury and illness in 2017.

The National Day of Mourning commemorates workers killed and injured on the job. The focus of the day is to publicly remember lost co-workers, friends and family, and to reflect on our commitment to workplace safety.

Date: Friday, April 27, 2018

Time: 10:30 - 11:30 am

Location: Civic Plaza (near the fountains at Abbotsford City Hall)
32315 South Fraser Way
Abbotsford BC
